DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's election of species 2 (claims 9-14 and 22-27) in the reply filed on 01/13/2005 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

Priority

2. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Specification

3. The lengthy specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

4. Claims 9-14 and 22-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C 102(e) as being anticipated by Matsuda, US Patent No. 6,646,689.

The above claims are anticipated by Matsuda's figure 2 and accompanying text which disclose a method of manufacturing an liquid crystal display (LCD) device comprising:

- . an alignment layer line (forming orientation film), wherein a plasticizing line including an alignment controlling force inherently exists during orientation film processing (i.e., rubbing method).
- . patterned spacers (forming spacer);
- . a liquid crystal layer line (dropping liquid crystal);
- . a sealant coating line (forming sealing material);
- . an assembling line (UV irradiating and actual UV curing);
- . a cutting line (cutting panel);
- . at least one buffer line (Matsuda's improvement, i.e., restraining step, see abstract);
- . an inspecting line being an inherent step to complete the LCD manufacturing.

Double Patenting

5. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

Art Unit: 2871

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

6. Claims 9-14 and 22-27 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 8 of U.S. Patent No. 6,710,843.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because both application and patent disclose a same method of fabricating an LCD device comprising the steps of dispersing spacers, dropping a liquid crystal, assembling two substrates together through a sealant material and cutting the LCD panel. The difference between the application and the patent is the steps of forming an alignment layer and inspecting the LCD panel. It would have been obvious to one skills in the art at the time of the invention was made to form an alignment layer and inspect an LCD panel since there are conventional steps in manufacturing an LCD panel (e.g., see figure 3 in the instant application) in order to align liquid crystal molecules in the LCD panel, and to inspect the LCD panel.
